

David Dial , Executive Vice President Worldwide Services, Veraz Networks
(business partner)

“Todd is a very knowledgeable and professional telecommunications executive. As a customer, he partnered with me to help create a responsive and customer focused professional services organization. His leadership skills were demonstrated by his influence with other customers in creating a unified position of requirements. Todd works very well under stressful situations. His views were constructive and insightful.” June 30, 2013
